

Information for Learners Driving Licence Holders

The Learners Driving Licence is administrated by Road Traffic (Control) [CAP 29].

Before getting a drivers licence, one must obtain a learner's licence.

The learners' licence form consists of three forms that can be collected from the office.

- Application for learners licence form
- Application for driving licence form.
- Medical Certificate form.

LICENCE DURATION

Learner's licence is valid for 1 year from the date the licence is issued. For example, if the licence is issued on 10/10/10; then it will be valid until 10/10/11.

Within this period, applicants can go for their examination at the Vanuatu Police Traffic Section to get their Certificate of Ability to Drive.

If an applicant happens to fail the test or still doesn't feel confident to drive, then the applicant can always renew the licence the following year. The same fees would also apply.

Learner's licence payment is only accepted BEFORE 3pm during office opening hours because the receipt number has to be recorded.
